A MOTION declaring the council's support for the Local Government Joint Legislative Proposal of the Association of Washington Cities, Washington Association of County Officials and Washington State Association of Counties.

WHEREAS, local jurisdictions from around Washington state are facing budget deficits that are threatening the delivery of critical services, and

WHEREAS, King County is currently working to manage a current expense (CX) general fund deficit of approximately $140 million over four years, and

WHEREAS, the Association of Washington Cities, Washington Association of County Officials and Washington State Association of Counties have worked together to develop a legislative proposal that addresses many of the concerns expressed by the membership of these organizations;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

The council supports the Local Government Joint Legislative Proposal developed by the Association of Washington Cities, Washington Association of County Officials and Washington State Association of Counties.
