

Metro Fares Work Program

Regional Transit Committee

April 19, 2017

Purpose

- Two-year program
- Assess ways to improve Metro's fare structure
- Guided by existing fare policy, farebox recovery targets

Goals

- Make fares easier to understand and pay
- Coordinate with regional partners
- Improve safety
- Speed operations by making fare payment faster
- Increase transit ridership and address affordability barriers

What we've heard

- Fare system is too complicated, especially if you use multiple modes or transit agencies
- People want discounts for a variety of reasons equity, promotional, to encourage institutional participation
- Getting cards and adding value pose limitations, especially for reduced-fare customers
- Concern about traveling short distances across two zones
- Access, alternative services, and regular bus fare systems don't "play well" together

What guides our work?

Policy goals

1st Round Survey Results

- Top four reasons people pay with cash:
  - Don't ride often enough
  - Easier to pay with cash
  - Don't want to pay a card fee
  - No convenient locations to find or load an ORCA card
- A third of respondents find it difficult or very difficult to understand Metro's fares
- 80% of all respondents find the cost to ride affordable
- Top four ways people would allocate resources to prioritize fare policies:
  - Improve affordability for low income customers
  - Increase ridership
  - Make boarding faster
  - Improve safety for operators/customers

4,487 survey responses

Existing conditions

Existing conditions: current fares DRAFT

	Off-peak	One-zone peak	Two-zone peak	Monthly pass

What fares are riders paying in King County

Factors to consider:

- Are you eligible for a senior, disabled, youth, or low-income fare discount?
- What time of day are you riding? (Fullfare adult riders pay $0.25 more if the bus they ride is scheduled as a peak trip.)
- Where are you riding? (Full-fare adult riders pay $0.50 more during peak periods if their trip crosses into or out of Seattle.)

Fares Paid for Fixed Route Services

- Adult Off-Peak
- Adult 1-Zone Peak
- Adult 2-Zone Peak
- ORCA LIFT
- Youth

Revisions to Adult Fares Structure under consideration

Flat Fare

- No zone and peak category
- Easy for customers to understand
- Promotes operational efficiency

Peak Fare (no zones)

- No zone categories
- Metro would be the only ORCA agency with peak pricing

Major Activities to Improve Access to ORCA

- ORCA LIFT Re-enrollment: Developing an ORCA LIFT re-enrollment plan to better manage expiring cards
- More Languages: Metro adding three additional languages: Burmese, Purepecha, Swahili
- Reduced Card Fee: Looking at options to reduce or eliminate fees for the ORCA card
