

Eugene Wasserman, President

Eugene has served as the President of the North Seattle Industrial Association (NSIA) since January 2005. He currently also serves as the Executive Director of the Lake Union Association. Prior to these positions, Eugene was the Executive Director of the Neighborhood Business Council from 1981 through 2004.

Eugene is currently the Co-Chair of the Seattle City Light Review Panel. The Panel just completed its work on a six year Strategic Plan for Seattle City Light which was approved by Seattle City Council. The nine member panel is currently working on Seattle City Light cost allocation and rate design. He also is the President of the Broadview Community Council, which represents the businesses and residents in the Broadview and Bitter Lake sections of Seattle.

Eugene received a Bachelor of Arts, Major Economics, degree from the University of Maryland College Park and earned a Masters in Urban Planning from City University of New York-Hunter College.