NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Metropolitan King County Council will hold a public hearing in the King County Council Chambers, 10th Floor, King County Courthouse, 516 3rd Avenue Room 1001, Seattle, Washington, on Tuesday November 15, 2022 at 1:00 p.m. Remote public testimony on Zoom will also be accepted. Information on the public hearing and how to submit public testimony can be found at this website: https://www.kingcounty.gov/council/committees/full\_council.aspx.

The purpose of this hearing is to consider adoption of Proposed Ordinance No. 2022-0380, which would update King County Code Chapter 4A.640 to eliminate King County Department of Adult and Juvenile Detention's electronic monitoring fees.

SUMMARY

The King County Department of Adult and Juvenile Detention (DAJD) operates the Electronic Home Detention alternative program that allows offenders to serve all or some portion of their pre-trial and/or sentenced time at home. Offenders are monitored electronically by a contractor (who also provides the equipment) and are confined to their homes, except when following a set schedule that may include attendance at work, school or treatment. To ensure compliance the offender is equipped with an electronic bracelet in order to allow monitoring. This alternative uses a cellular device for the electronic monitoring. Options are also available for remote monitoring for alcohol use. The department is immediately alerted if the equipment has been tampered with or the offender is not within the required distance of the monitoring device or using alcohol. Participants can be pre-adjudicated or sentenced misdemeanants or felons.

Program participants who earn $15.01 per hour and are required to pay fees equivalent to the cost of the equipment ordered by the court, which includes both the equipment rental and the monitoring fees. Participants who earn $15.00 per hour or less are required to pay half of the cost of the equipment and fees, unless waived by the court. Participants ordered to electronic monitoring from juvenile court are not required to pay fees. Proposed Ordinance No. 2022-0380 would update King County Code Chapter 4A.640 to eliminate King County Department of Adult and Juvenile Detention's electronic monitoring fees.
