Motion

Proposed No. 2017-0290.1

Sponsors Gossett

1                   A MOTION accepting receipt from the King County
2                   sheriff's office report on implementation of an enhanced, 3                   culturally appropriate antibias, violence de-escalation, and 4                   crisis intervention training program.

5                   WHEREAS, the service excellence goal of the King County Strategic Plan 6                   prioritizes a building of culture of service that is responsive and accountable to 7                   the community, and

8                   WHEREAS, in accordance with Ordinance 18409, the council requested 9                   the sheriff's office provide a report on implicit bias, de-escalation, and crisis 10                  intervention training prior to the release of $800,000 in the 2017-18 biennium;

11                  NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

12                  The King County council hereby accepts the King County sheriff's office
13                  report on implementation of an enhanced, culturally appropriate antibias, violence

14 de-escalation, and crisis intervention training program to be completed by 15 December 31, 2018, which is Attachments A and B to this motion.
