May 1992 – Present (24 years 5 months)

Elections

2013
Northshore School District elections (2013), Banks initially filed for re-election to the District 5 seat on the board. He withdrew his name from the ballot on May 20, 2013, leaving Amy Cast as the only candidate for this seat.

2009

Banks first won election to the board on November 3, 2009 by defeating incumbent Cathy Swanson.

Todd Banks
President, Kenmore Air

Todd Banks is president and partner of Kenmore Air Harbor, Inc., a unique family-owned business that combines scheduled and charter airline service with certified aircraft repair and parts manufacturing operations. Founded in 1946, the company is headquartered in Kenmore, Washington, and maintains other locations in Seattle, Renton, Port Angeles and the San Juan Islands.

Under its Part-135 Scheduled Air Carrier certificate, Kenmore Air operates both seaplanes and wheeled aircraft from three Seattle-area hubs to more than 50 destinations in Washington and British Columbia. It is the largest seaplane operator in the United States, with an active fleet of more than 20 seaplanes. In 2010, Kenmore Air became an alliance partner of Alaska Airlines, participating in interline electronic ticketing and the Alaska Airlines Mileage Plan.

Additionally, under its Part-145 Repair Station certificate, Kenmore Air has established a worldwide reputation as a rebuilder and modifier of seaplanes, especially the de Havilland Beaver. Kenmore Air also holds FAA production certification for two models of EDO floats and manufactures hundreds of EDO and de Havilland parts under PMA. The company employs more than 200 people.

Todd has worked at Kenmore Air for seventeen years, starting at the ground level, working in the reservations and shipping/receiving departments following his graduation from the University of Oregon with a degree in economics. Todd has been instrumental in the company's expansion in the Pacific Northwest, particularly regarding its Kenmore Air Express wheeled-plane operation.
