Subject to the conditions and limitations of the Oregon Constitution and the Oregon Tort Claims Act, ORS 30.260 through 30.300, each party to this Agreement shall protect, defend, indemnify, and save harmless the other party, and its officers, officials, employees, and agents, while acting within the scope of their employment, from any and all costs, claims, demands, judgments, damages, or liability of any kind including, but not limited to, injuries to persons or damages to property, which arise out of, or in any way result from, or are connected to services associated with this Agreement caused by or resulting from or are due to any negligent acts or omissions of the indemnifying party. Each party agrees that it is fully responsible for the acts and omissions of its own subcontractors, their employees and agents, acting within the scope of their employment as such, as it is for the acts and omissions of its own employees and agents. No party shall be required to indemnify, defend, or save harmless the other party if the claim, suit, or action for injuries, death, or damages is caused by the sole negligence of the party seeking indemnification. Where such claims, suits, or actions result from concurrent negligence of the parties, the indemnity provisions provided herein shall be valid and enforceable only to the extent of the party's own negligence. In no event shall King County be liable for an amount in excess of what would have been owed should King County be subject to the conditions and limitations of the Oregon Constitution and the Oregon Tort Claims Act, ORS 30.260 through 30.300.

Each party agrees that its obligations under this indemnification section extend to any claim, demand, and/or cause of action brought by, or on behalf of, any of its employees or agents. For this purpose, each party, by mutual negotiation, hereby waives, with respect to the other party only, any immunity that would otherwise be available against such claims under the industrial insurance provisions of Title 51 RCW.

In the event of any claims, demands, actions and lawsuits, the indemnifying party upon prompt notice from the other party shall assume all costs of defense thereof, including legal fees incurred by the other party, and of all resulting judgments subject to the limitations found above in section VI. C. that may be obtained against the other party. In the event that any party incurs attorney fees, costs or other legal expenses to enforce the provisions of this section, all such fees, costs and expenses shall be recoverable by the prevailing party.

This indemnification shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

D. Records retention/Audit.

Each party shall maintain books, ledgers, records, documents or other evidence relating to the costs and/or performance of the Agreement ("records") on a generally recognized accounting basis and to such extent and in such detail as will properly reflect and fully support all fees, costs and charges.

With regard to the records, each party shall do and require its employees, agents, and subcontractors to do the following:

1. Make such records open to inspection or audit by representatives of the other party during the term of this Agreement and for a period of not less than three years after the expiration of this Agreement.
2. Retain such records for a period of not less than six years after the expiration of this Agreement.
3. Provide adequate facilities reasonably acceptable to representatives of the other party conducting the audit so that such representatives can perform the audit during normal business hours.
4. Make a good faith effort to cooperate with representatives of the other party conducting the audit. Cooperation shall include assistance as may be reasonably required in the course of inspection or audit, including access to personnel with knowledge of the contents of the records being inspected or audited so that the information in the records is properly understood by the persons performing the inspection or audit. Cooperation shall also include establishing a specific mutually agreeable timetable for making the records available for inspection by the other party representatives.

F. Severability.

In the event any portion of this Agreement shall be found to be invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, such holding shall not affect the remaining provisions of this Agreement unless the court of competent jurisdiction rules that the principal purpose and intent of this Agreement should and/or must be invalidated.

G. Authority to Execute Agreement.

H. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in separate counterparts, all of which shall be construed as a single integrated instrument.
