In the event that the Consultant does not respond within the appropriate time with a corrective action plan, or the Consultant's corrective action plan is determined by the County to be insufficient, the County may commence termination of this Contract in whole or in part pursuant to Section IV.B;
- E. In addition, the County may withhold any payment owed the Consultant or prohibit the Consultant from incurring additional obligations of funds until the County is satisfied that corrective action has been taken or completed; and
- F. Nothing herein shall be deemed to affect or waive any rights the parties may have pursuant to Section IV, Termination Clauses, Subsections A, B, C, and D.

PART 5: ASSIGNMENT/SUBCONTRACTING

- A. The Consultant shall not assign or subcontract any portion of this Contract or transfer or assign any claim arising pursuant to this Contract without the written consent of the County. Said consent must be sought in writing by the Consultant not less than fifteen (15) calendar days prior to the date of any proposed assignment.

- B. "Subcontract" shall mean any agreement between the Consultant and a Subcontractor or between Subcontractors that is based on this Contract, provided that the term "subcontract" does not include the purchase of (i) support services not related to the subject matter of this contract, or (ii) supplies.

SECTION V - ADDITIONAL INFORMATION & REQUIREMENTS

A. Domestic Partner Benefits (Non-Discrimination in Benefits):

King County's Domestic Partner Benefits (DPB) Ordinance 14823 prohibits the award of contracts valued at $25,000.00 or more to firms that discriminate in the provision of employee benefits between employees with spouses, and employees with domestic partners. To be eligible for award, Contractors shall comply fully with the ordinance's provisions. Within five (5) days of notification of intent to award, and as a condition of the execution of a contract, the successful bidder/proposer shall provide to King County Procurement & Contract Services Section a completed DPB "Declaration" form (see last page of this document). The DPB Ordinance and Declaration Form are available online at www.metrokc.gov/finance/procurement/forms.asp.

B. Disclosure – Conflict of Interest

King County Code Chapter 3.04 is incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein and the Consultant agrees to abide by all the conditions of said Chapter. Failure by the Consultant to comply with any requirements of this Chapter shall be a material breach of contract.

1. The Consultant covenants that no officer, employee, or agent of the County who exercises any functions or responsibilities in connection with the planning and implementation of the scope of services funded herein, or any other person who presently exercises any functions or responsibilities in connection with the planning and implementation of the scope of services funded herein shall have any personal financial interest, direct or indirect, in this Contract. The Consultant shall take appropriate steps to assure compliance with this provision.
2. If the Consultant violates the provisions of Section V (1) or does not disclose other interest required to be disclosed pursuant to King County Code Section 3.04.120, as amended, the County will not be liable for payment of services rendered pursuant to this Contract. Violation of this Section shall constitute a substantial breach of this Contract and grounds for termination pursuant to Section IV (B) above as well as any other right or remedy provided in this Contract or law.
3. The King County Board of Ethics maintains a website that provides information regarding King County ethics requirements. To review specific areas of the Code of Ethics that relate to contractors and vendors, follow this path: <http://www.metrokc.gov/ethics/>, and access 1) The Code of Ethics, "Employee Code of Ethics 3.04", and 2) Advice and Guidance "Doing Business with Contractors, Vendors, Clients and Customers". Under "Employee Code of Ethics 3.04", there are two areas of the code that speak specifically to contractors: 3.04.060 B1 (attempting to secure preferential treatment) and 3.04.120 (disclosure of interests by consultants requirement). There are other sections under conflict of interest, 3.04.030 that are directed to employees and govern their relationships with contractors.

C. Recycled/Recyclable Products

It is the policy of King County to use recycled materials to the maximum extent practicable (King County Code Chapter 10.16). Consultants able to supply products containing recycled materials that meet performance requirements are encouraged to offer them in bids and proposals and to use them wherever possible in fulfillment of contracts.

The Consultant shall use recycled paper for the production of all printed and photocopied documents related to the fulfillment of this Contract and shall ensure that, whenever possible, the cover page of each document printed on recycled paper bears an imprint identifying it as recycled paper. If the cost of recycled paper is more than fifteen percent higher than the cost of non-recycled paper, the Consultant may notify the Contract Administrator, who may waive the recycled paper requirement. The Consultant shall use both sides of paper sheets for copying and printing and shall use recycled/recyclable products wherever practical in the fulfillment of this Contract.

D. Proprietary Rights

The parties to this Contract hereby mutually agree that if any patentable or copyrightable material or article should result from the work described herein, all rights accruing from such material or article shall be the sole property of the County. The foregoing shall not apply to existing training materials, consulting aids, check lists and other materials and documents of the Consultant which are modified for use in the performance of this Contract.

E. Supported Employment Program

King County encourages the creation of supported employment programs for developmentally and/or severely disabled individuals. The County itself has such a program and is actively seeking to do business with those contractors and consultants which share this employment approach. If your firm has such a program, or intends to develop such a program during the life of this contract, please submit documentation supporting this claim with your bid/proposal/qualifications. If you have questions, or need additional information, please contact Ray Jensen, Community & Human Services, Developmental Disabilities Division, (206) 296-5268 or the County's Business Development and Contract Compliance Section at (206) 205-0700.

F. Labor Harmony Clause

The Contractor shall furnish, and shall require any and all of its subcontractors to furnish, labor that works in harmony with all other elements of labor providing in any way goods or services relating to this Contract. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, "labor harmony" shall include the provision of labor that will not cause, cause to be threatened, engage in, or give rise to, either directly or indirectly, any disruption, slowdowns, or stoppages to the work being performed pursuant to this Contract, or any violence or harm to any persons or property.

The requirement to provide labor harmony as contained above is a material element of the Contract. Failure by the Contractor, or any of its subcontractors, to comply with this requirement shall be deemed a material breach of the Contract and shall subject the Contractor to all rights and remedies the County may have at law or under the Contract, including, without limitation, the County's right to stop the work and/or terminate the Contract. The Contractor shall be liable for all damages occasioned by a breach of this Labor Harmony Clause.

SECTION VI - MAINTENANCE OF RECORDS/AUDITS

- A. The Consultant shall maintain, and shall require any sub-consultant to maintain, accounts and records, including personnel, property, financial and programmatic records and other such records as may be deemed necessary by the County to ensure proper accounting for all project funds and compliance with this Contract. All such records shall sufficiently and properly reflect all direct and indirect costs of any na-

- ture expended and services provided in the performance of this Contract. The Consultant shall make such documents available to the County for inspection, copying, and auditing upon request.
- B. All records referenced in subsection (A) shall be maintained for a period of six (6) years after completion of work or termination hereof unless permission to destroy them is granted by the Office of the Archivist in accordance with RCW Chapter 40.14, or unless a longer retention period is required by law.
- C. The Consultant shall provide access to its facilities, including those of any sub-consultant, to the County, the state and/or federal agencies or officials at all reasonable times in order to monitor and evaluate the services provided under this Contract. The County will give advance notice to the Consultant in the case of fiscal audits to be conducted by the County.
- D. The Consultant agrees to cooperate with the County or its designee in the evaluation of services provided under this Contract and to make available all information reasonably required by any such evaluation process. The results and records of said evaluation shall be maintained and disclosed in accordance with RCW Chapter 42.17.
- E. If the Consultant received a total of $300,000.00 or more in federal financial assistance during its fiscal year from the County, and is a non-profit organization or institution of higher learning or a hospital affiliated with an institution of higher learning, and is, under this Contract, carrying out or administering a program or portion of a program, it shall have an independent audit conducted of its financial statement and condition, which shall comply with the requirements of GAAS (generally accepted auditing standards), GAO's Standards for Audits of Governmental Organizations, Programs, Activities, and Functions and OMB Circulars A-133 and A-128, as amended and as applicable. Consultants receiving federal funds from more than one County Department or Division shall be responsible for determining if the combined financial assistance is equal or greater than $300,000.00. The Consultant shall provide one copy of the audit report to each County division providing federal financial assistance to the Consultant no later than six (6) months subsequent to the end of the Consultant's fiscal year.

Historically, county governments have been tasked with providing services in less populated, more rural areas, while cities provide services at the urban level. This was most noticeable in the different funding sources available to cities versus counties.

King County, more than any other county in Washington, no longer fits this old model of county government. King County has a tremendous service demand to meet and has responded by, attempting to provide necessary services for health, safety, welfare and the quality of life for its residents.

Service Demands

Criminal Justice:

King County has an ever-increasing percentage of non-transportation budget dollars going to meet exploding criminal justice costs and demands. King County's problem is exacerbated by having to provide an urban level of police service, as well as the traditional level of criminal justice services.

Specific Action:

King County has the opportunity to work with other counties across the state (Yakima, Clark, Thurston, Pierce, Snohomish, Spokane, Benton, Franklin) to educate legislators about the need for additional revenue options similar to cities in order to meet the burgeoning criminal justice demands.

Transportation:

No county in the state faces the complex highway, public transportation, and multi-modal demands as King County. From I-405, the Alaskan Way Viaduct, regional partnerships, Metro growth, movement of freight from the Port of Seattle, plus connections to Everett and Tacoma, in addition to helping manage growth, King County faces many transportation challenges.

COPY

Specific Action:

The economic engine of the state of Washington is linked to projects in King County. Boeing needs to transport parts to Everett for the new 7E7, and not all will come through the new dock in Everett. The continued economic growth for the Ports of Seattle, Everett and Tacoma are closely linked to transportation projects in King County

Of course all of the growth King County has experienced, as well as growth in Pierce, Snohomish, Kitsap and Kittitas, is made possible in no small part by the movement of people and goods through King County.

We must stress the economic drive of King County as the engine that pulls the state.

Growth Management, Water/Sewer, Endangered Species:

King County has embraced the Growth Management Act (GMA) and has attempted to use the principles of GMA to improve the quality of life expected by its residents.

Specific Action:

We worked successfully with eastern Washington legislators to address our sewer capacity needs. Much work still remains in communicating the regional benefits produced by King County performing the lead agency role in providing the necessary sewer capacity for the growth needed to maintain our economic vitality and quality of life.

We must decide on the viability of the Central Puget Sound Water Initiative. While Governor Locke has pushed for water legislation, Jim Waldo did little to recognize the demands and needs of King or other western Washington urban counties. Water continues to be an important legislative policy issue, with critical importance placed on this issue by Central and Eastern Washington legislators. We began the process of educating certain key western Washington legislators, but it is important to continue to understand the needs expressed from Central and Eastern Washington and seek opportunities to develop the tools needed for King County.

King County has done an excellent job working in Washington DC to secure federal funds for salmon recovery. King County has also pushed hard to work with the local federal agencies and with our WIRA partners to reach out to the appropriate tribes. With the coming change in state administration we need to review results from the state salmon recovery board and plan for necessary changes.

Public Health:

Public health had been a shared financial responsibility for cities and counties. The legislature shifted this responsibility primarily to counties with revenue from the MVET. This tax base has been greatly diminished due to the initiative process however. September 11, 2001 and the continued threat of terrorism have placed incredible demands on the increased role of public health. Still we cannot ignore the demands from drug addiction, tobacco, obesity, drug-resistant viruses and West Nile, amongst many other public health concerns that need to be addressed.

Action Plan:

We must take the opportunity of public awareness to seek a new approach. Working with all counties, the larger cities, a supportive State Department of Health, the Insurance Commissioner and sensitive legislators, we must seek a long term funding solution to allow us to meet this critical public health and safety responsibility for our citizens.

Legislative Experience:

I have lobbied for King County on each of these issues and more. You will notice from my resume that I have extensive experience in and around the legislative process. I pride myself on knowing each legislator, the nature of their district, and attempt to understand the myriad reasons that motivate them to become elected officials.

Issues up for public debate are seldom decided solely on a partisan basis. Some may be influenced by urban, rural, suburban, dry land agricultural vs. irrigated, or personal experiences and some are purely political. I believe I understand these and work to use them for the best interests of my clients.

The knowledge I gained from being Attorney to the Speaker and then Counsel to the Senate Majority Leader gives me a tremendous understanding of the rules and procedures of the legislative process, as well as the ability to recognize the full range of options throughout the legislative process.
