Ms. Patterson reported on the Forecast Council, indicating that the Council approved the forecast that provided revenue estimates for the 2012 budget. She commented that sales tax collections have turned the corner, but the real estate market is struggling. Home values are roughly equivalent to what they were in 2004 in King County, and adjusting for inflation, home values in King County are equivalent to what they were in 1999. Estimates for 2012 are roughly what has been expected and likely will not change the budget outlook for next year.
