Background

Community organizations, King County Dept. of Public Defense, and Prosecuting Attorney's Office proposed Restorative Community Pathways for youth and harmed parties in 2020.

King County included RCP in the 2021-2022 budget.

Services launched in November 2021 to:

- Meet the individualized needs of youth and the harmed parties referred by PAO.
- Foster long-lasting relationships and support
- Provide harmed parties a voice in their healing process.
- Meaningful accountability for harm caused.

In 2025 KC Executive put forth changes from RCP to KCYDI in response to Ordinance 19861.

In April 2026, KC Executive transmitted the KCYDIvProgram Report, require by the biennial budget

2025 Total Youth and Community Members Served

522 youth served

- 290 exited services in 2025
- Of those, 223 (77%) completed RCP programming

107 community members who experienced harm served

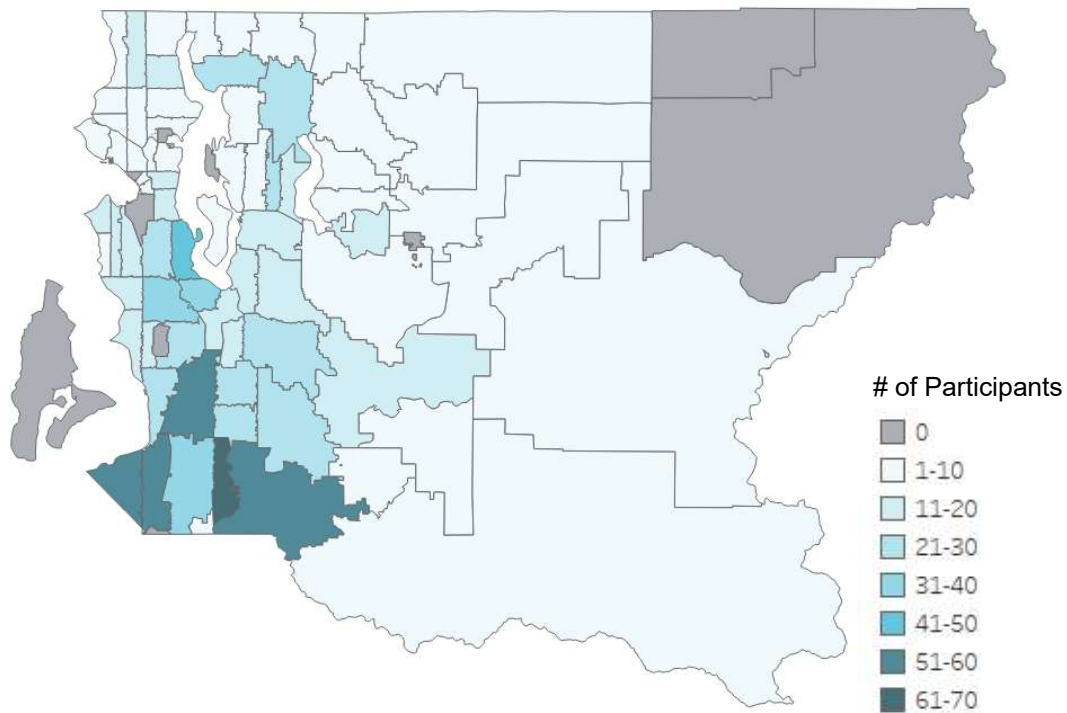

- 61 exited services in 2025
- Of those, 45 (74%) completed RCP programming.

Department of Community and Human Services

- King County's pre-filing community-based diversion for youth under 18 years referred from law enforcement to the Prosecuting Attorney's Office (PAO) for alleged misdemeanors.
- A network of community navigation and support services that help children and harmed community members with accountability, healing, and stability.
- Program Goal: Reduce youth involvement in the juvenile legal system through non-punitive accountability and connection to needed support services.

Improvements for 2026/2027

- ✓ Move the roles of referral administration and consortium coordination from a community organization into DCHS.
- ✓ Launch a new RFP to reprocure community-based services.
- Enhance data collection and reporting, especially around school and education engagement.
- Strengthen connections between KCYDI service providers and DCHS services.
- Add a School Liaison (one FTE) to support getting youth back into school, staying in school, and being successful in school.
- Decentralize the distribution of the Youth and Family Fund.
- Shift the role of a Youth Steering Committee away from decision-making to informing continuous quality Improvement.

Core Services

“Applying for college is very expensive. A youth who was unsure that they would be able to afford the process was able to apply to college. We are so excited that the youth was accepted and now with our support has paid their college admissions fee and is prepared to start college in the Fall of 2026!” – Community Navigator
