

Dino Rossi

[REDACTED] [REDACTED]
Sammamish, WA 98074

[REDACTED] [REDACTED]
Successful advocate and negotiator for pro small business government reform

Experience

Member of Washington State Senate 1997-2003 & 2012

- Ways and Means Chair: faced largest budget deficit in state history authoring bipartisan balanced budget without raising taxes, still protecting Washington's most vulnerable citizens

Highest vote total of any Washington Republican candidate for Governor and U.S. Senate in the last twenty years. Certified as Governor-elect in 2004 before two recounts changed the result.

Partner in Coast Equity Partners commercial real estate investment firm

Past Chair of the Board for Special Olympics & during his tenure as Chairman Seattle was awarded the 2018 Special Olympics USA games.

Dean's Advisory Board for the School of Business at Seattle University.

Dino's track record proves he knows how to communicate policies successfully to persuade Republicans, Independents and Conservative Democrats

Dino can bring rare experience in helping the Senate craft and communicate the budget.

Dino knows how to manage difficult jobs – maximizing positive opportunities and minimizing risks.

Personal

He and his wife, Terry, have four children and live in Sammamish.