Proposed No. 2009-0559.2

1	AN ORDINANCE making a supplemental appropriation
2	of $34,624,674 to various capital funds to prepare county
3	facilities so that high priority service delivery will not be
4	interrupted in the event that Howard Hanson dam
5	structural faults cause flooding in the Green River valley;
6	and amending the 2009 Budget Ordinance, Ordinance
7	16312, Sections 27, 107, 114, 115, 125 and 127, as 8	amended, and Attachments B and D, as amended; and
9	declaring an emergency.
10
11	BE IT ORDAINED BY THE KING COUNTY COUNCIL:
12	SECTION 1. Findings:
13	A. The United States Army Corps of Engineers ("USACE") discovered damage
14	on the right abutment at the federally-owned and operated Howard Hanson dam has
15	dramatically increased the risk of significant flooding in King County's Green River
16	valley for years to come.

17	B. The federal government has the sole responsibility from Congress for ensuring 18	operation of the Howard Hanson dam for the purposes of protecting the residents and
19	businesses in the Green River valley from the ravages of flooding.
20	C. The Howard Hanson dam is the primary flood protection facility for the entire
21	Green River valley stretching from unincorporated areas of King County nearest the dam,
22	through the cities of Auburn, Kent, Renton and Tukwila, and to the Duwamish river in
23	south Seattle.
24	D. The Green river watershed encompasses an area of approximately four
25	hundred ninety-two square miles.
26	E. The Howard Hanson dam was designed to hold back up to one hundred six
27	thousand acre-feet of water, which is 34,540,206,000 gallons, to protect the Green River
28	valley from flooding, and as a result of the damage to the abutment of the Howard
29	Hanson dam, the USACE has determined that it might have to operate the dam at only
30	approximately one-third of its normal capacity to prevent a breach of the entire dam.
31	F. To maintain the capacity restrictions that protect the dam during major rain
32	storms, the USACE might have to release up to seventy thousand acre-feet of water,
33	which is 22,809,570,000 gallons, into the Green River valley that could normally be
34	retained behind the dam, and such releases will result in significant and potentially
35	devastating flooding of the Green River valley.
36	G. Annually in the Pacific Northwest, rains and rain storms of significant size
37	and duration typically occur during the months of October through March, and a
38	significant release of water from the Howard Hanson dam into the Green River valley is

39	most likely to occur when soils are already saturated and tributaries throughout the valley
40	are already pouring substantial quantities of water into the Green river.
41	H. The levees and similar facilities along the Green river were never designed to 42	replace the protection that the Howard Hanson dam was designed to provide.
43	I. Approximately thirty-five thousand people live in the Green River valley, and
44	flooding from the Howard Hanson Dam this fall could displace as many as twenty-two
45	thousand residents from their homes, according to a Federal Emergency Management
46	Agency ("FEMA") report.
47	J. FEMA also determined that flooding in the Green River valley this fall could 48	result in almost four billion dollars in property damage, including substantial damage to
49	hundreds of buildings. This includes destruction of homes, places of worship, shops,
50	manufacturing facilities and other businesses, warehousing and distribution operation,
51	transportation and communication infrastructure, medical facilities and critical public
52	facilities including such county properties as the Norm Maleng Regional Justice Center,
53	Radio Shop and King County Animal Shelter.
54	K. Due to the damage to the abutment at the Howard Hanson dam and the
55	concern that permanent repairs may not be completed for a period of three to five years,
56	the King County council adopted Ordinance 16639 on August 29, 2009. The ordinance
57	authorized the executive to declare a state of emergency on September 10, 2009, and 58	waived procurement procedures. The King County council passed Motion 13085 and
59	extended to March 31, 2010, the waiver for competitive bidding and solicitation
60	requirements in order to ensure assure timely availability and acquisition of emergency
61	design, construction and other required services, materials and equipment necessary to

62	protect King County citizens, facilities, roads and other assets from the threat of flooding
63	in the Green River valley.

L. The sheer magnitude of the ongoing threat of additional billions of gallons of water pouring into the Green River valley requires immediate emergency response preparations. King County is expending significant financial resources to respond to the diminished capacity of the Howard Hanson dam, and should not have to bear the cost burden of emergency response operations, planning and recovery as a result of the diminished capacity of the federally-owned and operated Howard Hanson dam.

M. On September 17, 2009, the executive transmitted a proposal for 2009 emergency preparedness, requesting funding for planning and mitigation efforts in advance of a potential flood of the Green River valley, and included a financing strategy that requires the issuance of a bond anticipation note in order to meet these exigent needs. It is the intent of the council that these expenditures are to be reimbursed by the federal government.

N. The council recognizes the challenges to its law and justice initiatives is a result of this unprecedented emergency, and will defer for a short time the ongoing regional jail expansion planning. By January 11, 2010, unless the region is facing imminent flooding, it is the council's intent that those planning efforts be resumed.

80 O. While the funding for this emergency is budgeted in the wastewater treatment 81 construction fund and the building repair and replacement subfund, it is the council's 82 intent that on June 1, 2010, any funds remaining from this appropriation shall be 83 disappropriated and reappropriated to a flood prevention reserve fund within the 84 wastewater treatment and general fund financial plans.

P. In the executive's September 17, 2009, transmittal, the executive requested funding for a consultant to update the office of resource information management emergency management response plan. The office of resource information management concurs that the original appropriation amount can be reduced if the emergency planning efforts are focused on planning and mitigation matters surround the potential Green River flood.

91 Q. Over twenty million dollars of this supplemental appropriation request is 92 driven by the need to relocate law, safety and justice agencies from the Norm Maleng 93 Regional Justice Center. In order to continue to provide convenient access to law, safety 94 and justice services for the citizens of south King county it is the policy of the county that 95 agencies should move when expert prediction of imminent weather and dam releases 96 predicts a heightened risk of flooding. The agencies shall provide appropriate notice to 97 the public regarding such moves and access to the law, safety and justice agencies before 98 and after a move. It is the intent of the council that a variety of methodologies will be 99 employed to notify the public of agency relocations, including the funding in this 100 appropriation of efforts for a communications strategy. Initial information dissemination 101 will surround relocation efforts from the Norm Maleng Regional Justice Center.

R. King County's flood mitigation strategy funded by this ordinance includes funding for leases as necessary to accommodate essential county services that may be temporarily displaced by threatened or actual flooding. It is the policy of King County that purchase of real property is not necessary or appropriate for this temporary relocation of county services.
