

vacancy occurs, the legislative authority of King County, which is the King County council, shall appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy, and

WHEREAS, the Vashon/Maury Island community council is no longer operating and is listed in the Washington state records of nonprofit corporations as having been inactive since September 2013, and its records, if they still exist, cannot be located, and

WHEREAS, Gregory J. Beardsley has lived for more than thirty years in a home on Vashon Island that is about a twelve-minute drive from the ferry terminal and for more than forty years has been a frequent user of the ferries serving Vashon Island, and

WHEREAS, Gregory J. Beardsley was appointed and subsequently reappointed to the Vashon ferry advisory committee by the Vashon/Maury Island community council and believes, though he is not certain, that his most recent appointment was more than four years ago, that his term expired more than ninety days ago, and that no one has been appointed to replace him on the committee, and

WHEREAS, in reference to the statutory requirement in RCW 47.60.310 that "not more than two members of any terminal-area committee may be from the same political party at the time of their appointment," Gregory J. Beardsley does not consider himself to be from any political party, and

WHEREAS, Gregory J. Beardsley would like to be reappointed to the Vashon ferry advisory committee so that the Vashon Island community will have a means of expressing its views to the management of Washington state ferries about the ferry service that is being provided to the community;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

Gregory J. Beardsley, who resides on Vashon Island, which is in council district eight, is hereby reappointed to the Vashon ferry advisory committee to a four-year term to expire on June 30, 2020.
