

training;

2. Description of the method of delivering such trainings to both deputies and other employees managed by the sheriff;

3. The timeline for implementation of in-service training in areas of procedural justice, listen and explain with equity and dignity (LEED) communication, violence de-escalation and antibias training to both deputies and other employees managed by the sheriff;

4. An analysis describing how the in-service training curriculum in the areas of procedural justice, listen and explain with equity and dignity (LEED) communication, violence de-escalation and antibias training will meet the anticipated state-mandated law enforcement training requirements; and

5. An assessment of the efficacy of the planned in-service training curriculum modules in the areas of procedural justice, listen and explain with equity and dignity (LEED) communication, violence de-escalation and antibias training, methods of delivery and implementation timeline by the office of law enforcement oversight;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

The report detailing an In-Service Training Plan for deputies and other employees managed by the Sheriff, in compliance with the 2019-2020 Biennial Budget Ordinance, Ordinance 18835, Section 21, Proviso 3, which is Attachment A to this motion, is hereby acknowledged.