

WHEREAS, this bequest will legitimately enhance the county's ability to serve in the public's interest and provide transportation services to people with special needs, and

WHEREAS, this bequest is intended neither to influence a particular county action, nor to affect the performance of official duties and responsibilities by King County Metro's accessible services unit, and

WHEREAS, King County government is a charitable organization as defined by the federal Internal Revenue Service and King County as an entity that can accept gifts;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

The executive is hereby authorized to accept a bequest of $360,000, and such further amounts as may be disbursed in the future, from the estate of Lillian May Hyde to King County's ACCESS transportation program for the benefit of van service provided to Beacon Hill and the South Seattle district. The funds shall be deposited into the county's trust and contribution fund and spent down in accordance with the grantor's wishes at the authority of the executive or his designee in coordination with King County Metro's accessible services unit.
