

personnel and electronic systems, and requested the executive to provide a security plan for council review, and

WHEREAS, Motion 12299 requested that the executive hire a management consultant to assist the director of elections to lead the organization to become a model elections operation with a very high level of competence, high morale, low turnover and full staffing, and

WHEREAS, Motion 12299 requested the director of elections to provide quarterly report to the council, and

WHEREAS, all of the conditions and concerns expressed in Motion 12299 have been met and addressed, and

WHEREAS, Ordinance 17210 (Proposed Ordinance 2011-0385) if enacted, establishes annual reporting requirements for the director of elections that provide meaningful oversight for the King County council and transparency of elections administration for the public, and

WHEREAS, removing the requirement for quarterly reports would increase efficiency for the department of elections while still providing adequate information to the council for its oversight role;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

Motion 12299 is hereby rescinded.
