

invite the community to help create the office of law enforcement oversight's public affairs, community engagement and public participation program, and

WHEREAS, the integrated public affairs program will support and promote the office of law enforcement oversight's strategic goals, mission and vision, as well as influence the functions of the office of law enforcement oversight under K.C.C. 2.75.040, and

WHEREAS, the office of law enforcement oversight engaged in a competitive request for proposals procurement process under RFP number 1137-20-VLN for consultant services related to public engagement and participation to support the program, and

WHEREAS, PRR, Inc., was selected as the most responsive and responsible proposer, based on the selection criteria, and

WHEREAS, the office of law enforcement oversight desires to enter into a contract for public engagement and participation services with PRR, Inc., in the amount of $140,000, and

WHEREAS, under OR 1-020.C, in the council's organization motion compilation, the council must approve execution of any consultant contract with the legislative branch that is in excess of $50,000 in value;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

The director of the office of law enforcement oversight is authorized to enter into the contract for public engagement and participation services with PRR, Inc.