A MOTION requesting the secretary of state to take steps to minimize the likelihood of registering voters such as noncitizens or convicted felons who have lost their civil rights.

WHEREAS, Congress passed the National Voter Registration Act in 1993 requiring states to provide uniform registration outreach services through entities such as drivers license agencies, and

WHEREAS, states began implementing the law January 1, 1995, and

WHEREAS, in Washington state, the Department of Licensing offers voter registration services at the time of driver's license application or renewal, and

WHEREAS, drivers seeking to register to vote at the time of license application or renewal are not being asked in a clear way whether or not they are citizens or convicted felons who have lost their civil rights, and

WHEREAS registration of ineligible voters compromises the electoral process;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:
