BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF KING COUNTY:

SECTION 1. Findings:

A. It has been the long-standing policy of King County to prohibit discrimination in employment, housing, and public accommodations on the grounds of race, color, age, sex, marital status, sexual orientation, religion, ancestry, national origin and disability. King County has also prohibited discrimination in public accommodations and housing on the additional ground of parental status, and in housing on the basis of participation in the federal section 8 program. Beginning in 2001, King County has prohibited discrimination in contracting based on race, color, age, gender, marital status, sexual orientation, religion, ancestry, national origin, disability and use of a service or assistive animal by an individual with a disability.

B. The written materials submitted and the testimony heard in the public hearing identify discrimination that continues to occur in King County.

C. The King County council finds reasonable cause to believe that discrimination on these grounds and on the basis of gender identity continues to occur and that the provision of a private right of action will likely deter the discrimination.

SECTION 2. Ordinance 13981, Section 1, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Statement of purpose -- findings. ~~((This ordinance))~~ K.C.C. chapter 12.17 is an exercise of the police power of King County for the protection of the public welfare, health, peace and safety of the residents of King County and in fulfillment of the provisions of the constitution of this state. The King County council hereby finds and declares that practices of discrimination in contracting by business entities against any person on the basis of race, color, age, gender, gender identity, marital status, sexual orientation, religion, ancestry, national origin, disability or ~~((the))~~ use of a service or assistive animal by an individual with a disability constitute matters of local concern and are contrary to the public welfare, health, peace and safety of the residents of King County. ~~((This ordinance applies to: King County when King County is acting as a contractor or is awarding a contract; to other contractors, subcontractors, suppliers, materialmen, bonding agencies, contract agencies and other business entities and parties doing business in unincorporated King County, and shall be liberally~~ ~~construed for accomplishment of its policies and purposes. Nothing in this ordinance shall be deemed to deny any persons the right to institute any action or to pursue any civil or criminal remedy for the violation of those persons' civil rights. Nothing in this ordinance is intended to be nor shall be construed to create or form the basis for any liability on the part of King County, or its officers or agents, for any injury or damage resulting from or by reason of any act or omission in connection with the implementation or enforcement of this chapter on the part of King County by its officers, employees or agents. Nothing in this ordinance shall be presumed to toll the statute of limitations for any claims under federal or state statute. Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to prohibit or apply to actions taken in good faith against any person by a contractor based solely upon their performance, qualifications, or ability to perform in accordance with the terms of a contract or for other nondiscriminatory reasons.))~~

NEW SECTION. SECTION 3. There is hereby added to K.C.C. chapter 12.17 a new section to read as follows:

C. If there is a failure to reach an agreement for the elimination of any unfair contracting practice where the respondent is an executive department, division or office of the county, the office of civil rights (( enforcement)) may compel compliance by the executive department, division or office with any settlement agreement agreed to between the complainant and the office of civil rights ((enforcement)).

The action may be commenced no later than ninety days after the referral of the alleged breach underlying the referral under subsection B. of this section.

SECTION 15. Ordinance 13981, Section 9, and K.C.C. 12.17.080 are each hereby amended to read as follows:

Enforcement by private parties.

A. An aggrieved person may commence a civil action in King County superior court not later than one year after the occurrence or the termination of an alleged unfair contracting practice, whichever occurs last, to obtain appropriate relief with respect to the unfair contracting practice.

B. The computation of the one-year period does not include time during which an administrative proceeding under this chapter was pending with respect to a complaint or charge under this chapter based upon the discriminatory contracting practices.

C. An aggrieved person may commence a civil action under this section whether or not a complaint has been filed under K.C.C. 12.17.030 and without regard to the status of any such a complaint, except as provided in subsection D₂ of this section, but if a settlement or conciliation agreement has been reached with the consent of an aggrieved person, an action may not be filed under this subsection by the aggrieved person with respect to the alleged unfair contracting practice that forms the basis for the complaint except for the purpose of enforcing the terms of the agreement.

D. An aggrieved person may not commence a civil action under this section with respect to an alleged unfair contracting practice which forms the basis of a complaint if a hearing on the complaint has been convened by the office of the King County hearing examiner.

E. In a civil action under this section, if the court finds that an unfair contracting practice has occurred or is about to occur, the court may grant as relief, as the court deems appropriate, any permanent or temporary injunction, temporary restraining order, or other order, including an order enjoining the defendant from engaging in such a practice or ordering such affirmative measures as might be appropriate. The court may also allow reasonable attorneys' fees and costs to the prevailing party.

F. Relief granted under this section does not affect any contract, sale, encumbrance or lease consummated before the granting of the relief and involving a bona fide purchaser, encumbrances or tenant, without actual notice of the filing of a complaint with the office of civil rights ((enforcement)) or civil action under this title.

G. Upon timely application, the prosecuting attorney may intervene in the civil action if the prosecuting attorney certifies that the case is of general public importance.

SECTION 16. Ordinance 13981, Section 10, and K.C.C. 12.17.090 are each hereby amended to read as follows:

Authorization to implement procedures. ~~((The office of civil rights enforcement shall receive, investigate and issue findings and orders with respect to charges alleging unfair practices as defined by this~~ ~~chapter, conciliate and settle the charges by agreement and monitor and enforce any agreement or order resulting therefrom or from a subsequent hearing on the charges under this chapter; and has such powers and duties in the performance of these functions as are defined in this chapter and otherwise necessary and proper in the performance of the powers and duties and provided by law.)~~ The office of civil rights ((enforcement)) may implement such forms, administrative processes and operational procedures as are necessary to implement this chapter((, but)). ((†))The forms, processes and procedures shall be adopted in compliance with K.C.C. chapter 2.98. The office of civil rights ((enforcement)) shall further assist other county agencies and departments upon request in effectuating and promoting the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. SECTION 17. There is hereby added to the K.C.C. chapter 12.18 a new section to read as follows:

Enforcement by private persons.

A. An aggrieved person may commence a civil action in superior court not later than three years after the occurrence or termination of an alleged unfair employment practice or ninety days after a determination of reasonable cause is issued by the office of civil rights, whichever occurs last, to obtain appropriate relief with respect to the unfair employment practice.

B. A civil action may be filed under this section whether or not an administrative complaint has been filed under K.C.C. 12.18.040 and without regard to the status of such a complaint. However, if the office of civil rights obtained a prefinding or postfinding settlement or conciliation agreement with the consent of the aggrieved person, an action may not be filed under this section by the aggrieved person with respect to the alleged unfair employment practice that forms the basis for the complaint except for the purpose of enforcing the agreement. To preclude such a filing, the prefinding or postfinding settlement or conciliation agreement must include language that the aggrieved person knowingly waives any right to file a civil action based on the same alleged unfair employment practice.

C. Subject to subsection D. of this section, after the filing of a civil action involving the same claim or arising from the same facts and circumstances, whether under this chapter or similar law, the office of civil rights may administratively close a complaint of an unfair employment practice.

D. If a court dismisses a private cause of action without reaching the merits and on grounds that would not preclude pursuit of a complaint under this chapter, the charging party may request, within ninety days of the entry of the court's order of dismissal, that the office of civil rights reopen a previously filed case. Upon such a request, the office of civil rights may reopen a case that was administratively closed upon the filing of a civil action. If the office of civil rights closes a case based on a "no reasonable cause" finding, the case shall not be reopened except as provided through reconsideration under K.C.C. 12.18.050.

E. A charging party or aggrieved person may not secure relief from more than one governmental agency, instrumentality or tribunal for the same harm or injury.

F. An aggrieved person may not commence a civil action under this section with respect to an alleged unfair employment practice that forms the basis of a complaint if a hearing on the complaint has been convened under K.C.C. 12.18.070.

G. In a civil action under this section, if the court finds that a unfair practice occurred, the court may grant such relief as is available for violations of the Washington state Law Against Discrimination, chapter 49.60 RCW.

H. Upon timely application, the prosecuting attorney may intervene in the civil action if the prosecuting attorney certifies that the case is of general public importance.

I. The council intends with this section to provide private judicial remedies for violations of this chapter that are as expansive as possible consistent with the powers granted by the Constitution and laws of the state of Washington. If any provision of this section or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of this section or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

D. The charging party or the office of civil rights may amend a complaint: to cure technical defects or omissions; to clarify and amplify allegations made in the complaint; or to add allegations related to or arising out of the subject matter set forth, or attempted to be set forth, in the original complaint. Either the charging party or the office of civil rights, or both, may amend a complaint for these reasons as a matter of right before service of notice of hearing on the matter, as provided under K.C.C. 12.18.070, and thereafter may amend a complaint only with permission of the hearing examiner, which permission shall be granted if justice will be served by the permission. The amendments may be made at any time during the investigation of the original complaint if the office of civil rights will have adequate time to investigate the additional allegations and the parties will have adequate time to present the office of civil rights with evidence concerning the allegations before the issuance of findings of fact and a determination.

SECTION 28. Ordinance 7430, Section 5, and K.C.C. 12.18.050 are each hereby amended to read as follows:

A person who is not named as a respondent in a complaint, but who is identified as a respondent in the course of investigation, may be joined as an additional or substitute respondent upon written notice, under subsection A. of this section, to the person from the office of civil rights. The notice, in addition to meeting the requirements of subsection A. of this section, must explain the basis for the office of civil rights's belief that the person to whom the notice is addressed is properly joined as a respondent.

D. During the period beginning with the filing of the complaint and ending with the issuance of the findings of fact, the office of civil rights shall, to the extent feasible, engage in settlement discussions with respect to the complaint. Anything said or done in the course of the settlement discussions may not be made public or used as evidence in a subsequent proceeding under this chapter without the written consent of the persons concerned. A prefinding settlement agreement arising out of the settlement discussions must be an agreement between the respondent and the charging party and is subject to approval by the office of civil rights. Each prefinding settlement agreement is a public record. Failure to comply with the prefinding settlement agreement may be enforced under K.C.C. 12.18.080.

E. The office of civil rights shall seek the voluntary cooperation of all persons: to obtain access to premises, records, documents, individuals and other possible sources of information; to examine, record and copy necessary materials; and to take and record testimony or statements of persons reasonably necessary for the furtherance of the investigation. The office of civil rights may conduct discovery in aid of the investigation by the following methods or others: deposition upon oral examination or written questions; written interrogatories; requests for the production of documents or other evidence, for inspection and other purposes; physical and mental examinations; and requests for admissions. The office of civil rights may sign and issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of or access to evidence including books, records, correspondence, e-mail or documents in the possession or under the control of the person subpoenaed as are necessary for the investigation. The office of civil rights shall consult with the prosecuting attorney before issuing a subpoena under this section.

The petition shall:

1. Be accompanied by a copy of the subpoena and proof of service;
2. Set forth in what specific manner the subpoena has not been complied with; and
3. Ask for an order of the court to compel the witness to appear and testify or cooperate in the investigation of the unfair employment practice.

G. If the office of civil rights concludes at any time after the filing of a complaint that prompt judicial action is necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter, the office of civil rights may invoke the aid of the prosecuting attorney, who may file a civil action for appropriate temporary, injunctive or preliminary relief pending final disposition of the case.

H. The office of civil rights shall reduce the results of the investigation (~~shall be reduced~~) to written findings of fact and make a finding (~~((shall be made))~~) that there either is or is not reasonable cause for believing that an unfair employment practice has been or is being committed.

~~((E-))~~ I. If a finding is made that there is no reasonable cause, (~~((said))~~) the finding shall be served on the charging party and respondent. Within thirty days after service of such a negative finding, the charging party (~~((shall have the right to))~~) may file a written request with the (~~((executive))~~) office of civil rights asking for reconsideration of the finding. The office of civil rights shall furnish the charging party with information regarding how to request reconsideration. The (~~((executive))~~) office of civil rights shall respond in writing within a reasonable time by granting or denying the request.

hundred dollars ($500.00) per day for each day the respondent refuses or fails to comply with any order of the director if an appeal is not pending.

~~B. Whenever~~) If the ~~((director))~~ office of civil rights has reasonable cause to believe that a respondent ~~((has))~~ breached a pre~~((--))~~finding or post~~((--))~~finding settlement agreement executed under K.C.C. 12.20.080 or 12.20.090, or ~~((has))~~ violated an order of the office of civil rights issued under K.C.C. 12.20.090 or an order of the hearing examiner issued ~~((pursuant to Section))~~ under K.C.C. 12.20.100, the ~~((director))~~ office of civil rights shall refer the matter to the prosecuting attorney for the filing of a civil action under subsection ~~((C))~~ B. of this section for the enforcement of ~~((such))~~ the agreement.

~~((C--))~~ B. The prosecuting attorney may commence a civil action in ~~((King County S))~~superior ~~((C))~~court for appropriate relief with respect to breach of a pre~~((--))~~finding or post~~((--))~~finding settlement agreement executed under K.C.C. 12.20.080 or 12.20.090, or violation of an order of the office of civil rights issued under K.C.C. 12.20.090 or an order of the hearing examiner issued ((pursuant to section)) under K.C.C. 12.20.100. This action may be commenced no later than ~~((90))~~ ninety days after the referral of the alleged breach under subsection ~~((B))~~ A. of this section.

SECTION 51. Ordinance 10469, Section 13, and K.C.C. 12.20.122 are each hereby amended to read as follows:

Enforcement by private persons.

A. An aggrieved person may commence a civil action in ~~((King County S))~~superior ~~((C))~~court not later than one year after the occurrence or the termination of an alleged discriminatory housing practice, whichever occurs last, to obtain appropriate relief with respect to ~~((such))~~ the discriminatory housing practice.

B. The computation of ~~((such))~~ the one-year period shall not include any time during which an administrative proceeding under this chapter was pending with respect to a complaint or charge under this chapter based upon ~~((such))~~ the discriminatory housing practices.

C. An aggrieved person may commence a civil action under this ~~((sub))~~section whether or not a complaint has been filed under ~~((Section))~~ K.C.C. 12.20.070 and without regard to the status of any such a complaint~~((, but))~~. However, if the ~~((county))~~ office of civil rights ~~((and compliance))~~ or the ~~((U.S.))~~ United States Department of Housing and Urban Development has obtained a pre~~((-)finding~~ or post~~((-)finding~~ settlement or conciliation agreement with the consent of an aggrieved person, ~~((no))~~ an action may not be filed under this ~~((sub))~~section by ~~((such))~~ the aggrieved person with respect to the alleged discriminatory housing practice ~~((which))~~ that forms the basis for ~~((such))~~ the complaint except for the purpose of enforcing the ~~((terms of such))~~ agreement. To preclude such a filing, the prefinding or postfinding settlement or conciliation agreement must include language that the charging party knowingly waives any right to file a civil action based on the same alleged unfair housing practice.

D. Subject to subsection E. of this section, after the filing of a civil action involving the same claim or arising from the same facts and circumstances, whether under this chapter or similar law, the office of civil rights may administratively close a complaint of an unfair housing practice.

E. If a court dismisses a private cause of action without reaching the merits and on grounds that would not preclude pursuit of a complaint under this chapter, the charging party may request, within ninety days of the entry of the court's order of dismissal, that the office of civil rights reopen a previously filed case. Upon such a request, the office of civil rights may reopen a case that was administratively closed upon the filing of a civil action. If the office of civil rights closes a case based on a "no reasonable cause" finding, the case shall not be reopened except as provided through reconsideration under K.C.C. 12.20.080. A charging party or aggrieved person may not secure relief from more than one governmental agency, instrumentality or tribunal for the same harm or injury.

F. An aggrieved person may not commence a civil action under this ~~((sub))~~section with respect to an alleged discriminatory housing practice ~~((which))~~ that forms the basis of a complaint if a hearing on the complaint has been convened by the office of the ~~((King County))~~ hearing examiner.

~~((E.))~~ G. In a civil action under subsection A. of this section, if the court or jury finds that a discriminatory practice ~~((has))~~ occurred or is about to occur, the court may order remedies as allowed by ~~((the federal Fair Housing Act, as amended in 1988, at))~~ 42 U.S.C. 3613 (c) ~~((as of the date of passage (July 13, 1992) of this section))~~ as it exists on the effective date of this section, including punitive damages as provided in 42 U.S.C. 3613 (c), and, subject to the restrictions of subsection ~~((F-))~~ H. of this section, may grant as relief, as the court deems appropriate, any permanent or temporary injunction, temporary restraining order~~((;))~~ or other order, ~~((f))~~including an order enjoining the defendant from engaging in ~~((sueh))~~ the practice or ordering such affirmative action as ~~((may))~~ might be appropriate~~((;))~~. The court may also allow reasonable attorney~~((;))~~'s fees and costs to the prevailing party.

~~((F-))~~ H. Relief granted under this section shall not affect any contract, sale, encumbrance~~((;))~~ or lease consummated before the granting of ~~((sueh))~~ the relief and involving a bona fide purchaser, encumbrances~~((;))~~ or tenant, without actual notice of the filing of a complaint with the ~~((director))~~ office of civil rights or civil action under this ~~((title))~~ chapter.

~~((G-))~~ I. Upon timely application, the prosecuting attorney may intervene in ~~((sueh))~~ the civil action~~((;))~~ if the prosecuting attorney certifies that the case is of general public importance.

J. The council intends with this section to provide private judicial remedies for violations of this chapter that are as expansive as possible consistent with the powers granted by the Constitution and laws of the state of Washington. If any provision of this section or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of this section or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

SECTION 52. Ordinance 10469, Section 14, and K.C.C. 12.20.124 are each hereby amended to read as follows:

Civil enforcement when election is made for ~~((sueh))~~ a civil action.

A. If an election is made under ~~((Section))~~ K.C.C. 12.20.100 for the claims to be decided in a civil action, the ~~((director))~~ office of civil rights shall authorize~~((;))~~ and, not later than ~~((30))~~ thirty days after the

B. Any aggrieved person with respect to the issues to be determined in a civil action under this ~~((sub))~~section may intervene as of right in that civil action.

C. In a civil action under this ~~((sub))~~section, if the court finds that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred, or is about to occur, the court may grant as relief any relief which a court could grant with respect to such a discriminatory housing practice in a civil action under ~~((section))~~ K.C.C. 12.20.122. Any relief so granted that would accrue to an aggrieved person in a civil action commenced by that aggrieved person under ~~((section))~~ K.C.C. 12.20.122 ~~((shall))~~ also accrues to that aggrieved person in a civil action under this ~~((sub))~~section. If monetary relief is sought for the benefit of an aggrieved person who does not intervene in that civil action, the court shall not award ~~((such))~~ the monetary relief if that aggrieved person has not complied with discovery orders entered by the court.

NEW SECTION. SECTION 59. There is hereby added to the K.C.C. chapter 12.22 a new section to read as follows:

Enforcement by private persons.

A. An aggrieved person may commence a civil action in superior court not later than one year after the occurrence or termination of alleged discrimination in a place of public accommodation or ninety days after a determination of reasonable cause is issued by the office of civil rights, whichever occurs last, to obtain appropriate relief with respect to the discrimination in public accommodations.

B. A civil action may be filed under this section whether or not an administrative complaint has been filed under K.C.C. 12.22.040 and without regard to the status of the complaint. However, if the office of civil rights obtained a prefinding or postfinding settlement or conciliation agreement with the consent of the aggrieved person, an action may not be filed by the aggrieved person with respect to the alleged discrimination in public accommodations that forms the basis for the complaint except for the purpose of enforcing the agreement. To preclude such a filing, the prefinding or postfinding settlement or conciliation agreement must include language that the aggrieved person knowingly waives any right to file a civil action under this section based on the same alleged discrimination in public accommodations.

C. Subject to subsection D. of this section, after the filing of a civil action involving the same claim or arising from the same facts and circumstances, whether under this chapter or similar law, the office of civil rights may administratively close a complaint of discrimination in public accommodations.

D. If a court dismisses a private cause of action without reaching the merits and on grounds that would not preclude pursuit of a complaint under this chapter, the charging party may request, within ninety days of the entry of the court's order of dismissal, that the office of civil rights reopen a previously filed case. Upon such a request, the office of civil rights may reopen a case that was administratively closed upon the filing of a civil action. If the office of civil rights closes a case based on a "no reasonable cause" finding, the case may not be reopened except as provided through reconsideration under K.C.C. 12.22.050.

E. A charging party or aggrieved person may not secure relief from more than one governmental agency, instrumentality or tribunal for the same harm or injury.

F. An aggrieved person may not commence a civil action under this section with respect to an alleged discrimination in public accommodations practice that forms the basis of a complaint if a hearing on the complaint has been convened under K.C.C. 12.22.070.

G. In a civil action under this section, if the court finds that discrimination in public accommodations occurred, the court may grant such relief as is available for violations of the Washington state Law Against Discrimination, chapter 49.60 RCW.

H. Upon timely application, the prosecuting attorney may intervene in the civil action, if the prosecuting attorney certifies that the case is of general public importance.

I. The council intends with this section to provide private judicial remedies for violations of this chapter that are as expansive as possible consistent with the powers granted by the state Constitution and laws of the state of Washington. If any provision of this section or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of this section or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

SECTION 60. Ordinance 8625, Section 1, and K.C.C. 12.22.010 are each hereby amended to read as follows:

The complaint must describe with particularity the practice complained of and the location of the practice and must identify the person being charged with committing the discrimination. ((~~PROVIDED THAT:~~)) However, the office of civil rights may not reject a complaint ((shall not be rejected)) as insufficient because of failure to include all required information, ((so long as it)) if the office of civil rights determines that the complaint substantially meets the informational requirements necessary for processing.

C. Upon the receipt of a complaint, the office of civil rights shall serve notice upon the charging party acknowledging the filing.

D. The charging party or the office of civil rights may amend a complaint: to cure technical defects or omissions; to clarify and amplify allegations made in the complaint; or to add allegations related to or arising out of the subject matter set forth, or attempted to be set forth, in the original complaint. For jurisdictional purposes, the amendments relate back to the date the original complaint was first filed. Either ((~~F~~))the charging party or the office of civil rights, or both, may amend a complaint ((in any respect)) for these reasons as a matter of right before service of notice of hearing on the matter as provided under K.C.C. 12.22.070, and thereafter may amend a complaint only with permission of the ((~~King County zoning and subdivision~~)) hearing examiner, which permission shall be granted ((when)) if justice will be served ((thereby)) by the permission, and all parties shall be allowed time to prepare their cases with respect to additional or expanded ((charges which they)) allegations that the parties did not and could not have reasonably foreseen would be an issue at the hearing.

E. The charging party may also amend a complaint to include allegations of additional unrelated discriminatory acts that arose after filing of the original complaint. The charging party must file any amendments adding the allegations within one hundred eighty days of the occurrence of the alleged discrimination or within one hundred eighty days of when the charging party, through exercise of due diligence, should have had notice or been aware of the additional discriminatory act, and before the issuance of findings of fact and a determination with respect to the original complaint by the office of civil rights. The amendments may be made at any time during the investigation of the original complaint if the office of civil rights will have adequate time to investigate the additional allegations and the parties will have adequate time to present the office of civil rights with evidence concerning the allegations before the issuance of findings of fact and a determination.

SECTION 69. Ordinance 8625, Section 5, and K.C.C. 12.22.050 are each hereby amended to read as follows:

Investigation of complaint.

A. After the filing of a complaint, the ~~((director, or the administrator acting for the director,))~~ office of civil rights shall serve notice of the complaint and a copy ~~((thereof))~~ of the complaint on the respondent within twenty days after the filing of the complaint. Each respondent may file an answer to the complaint not later than twenty days after receipt of notice from the office of civil rights. If a respondent is unable to file a response within twenty days, the respondent may request an extension of time from the office of civil rights. The extension may be granted by the office of civil rights if good cause is shown. The office of civil rights shall commence the investigation of the complaint promptly.

B. The office of civil rights shall direct the investigation to ascertain the facts concerning the discrimination in public accommodations alleged in the complaint and shall conduct the investigation in an objective and impartial manner. During the investigation, the office of civil rights shall consider any statement of position or evidence with respect to the allegations of the complaint that the charging party or the respondent wishes to submit. A person who is not named as a respondent in a complaint, but who is identified as a respondent in the course of the investigation, may be joined as an additional or substitute respondent upon written notice, as provided under subsection A. of this section, to the person from the office of civil rights. The notice, in addition to meeting the requirements of subsection A. of this section, must explain the basis for the belief of the office of civil rights that the person to whom the notice is addressed is properly joined as a respondent.

C. During the period beginning with the filing of the complaint and ending with the issuance of the findings of fact, the office of civil rights shall, to the extent feasible, engage in settlement discussions with respect to the complaint. Anything said or done in the course of the settlement discussions may not be made public or used as evidence in a subsequent proceeding under this chapter without the written consent of the persons concerned. A prefinding settlement agreement arising out of the settlement discussions must be an agreement between the respondent and the charging party, and is subject to approval by the office of civil rights. Each prefinding settlement agreement is a public record. Failure to comply with the prefinding settlement agreement may be enforced under K.C.C. 12.22.080.

D. The office of civil rights shall seek the voluntary cooperation of all persons to obtain access to premises, records, documents, individuals and other possible sources of information; to examine, record and copy necessary materials; and to take and record testimony or statements of persons reasonably necessary for the furtherance of the investigation. The office of civil rights may conduct discovery in aid of the investigation by the following methods or others: deposition upon oral examination or written questions; written interrogatories; requests for the production of documents or other evidence, inspection and other purposes; physical and mental examinations; and requests for admissions. The office of civil rights may sign and issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of or access to evidence including books, records, correspondence, e-mail or documents in the possession or under the control of the person subpoenaed as are necessary for the investigation. The office of civil rights shall consult with the prosecuting attorney before issuing a subpoena under this section.

E. If an individual fails to obey a subpoena issued under this section, or obeys the subpoena but refuses to testify if requested concerning a matter under investigation under this section, the office of civil rights may invoke the aid of the prosecuting attorney who may petition to the superior court for an order or other appropriate action necessary to secure enforcement of the subpoena. The petition shall:

1. Be accompanied by a copy of the subpoena and proof of service;
2. Set forth in what specific manner the subpoena has not been complied with; and
3. Ask for an order of the court to compel the witness to appear and testify or cooperate in the investigation of the discrimination in public accommodations.

F. If the office of civil rights concludes at any time after the filing of a complaint that prompt judicial action is necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter, the office of civil rights may invoke the aid of the prosecuting attorney who may file a civil action for appropriate temporary, injunctive or preliminary relief pending final disposition of the case.

G. The office of civil rights shall reduce the results of the investigation (~~((shall be reduced))~~) to written findings of fact and make a finding (~~((shall be made))~~) that there either is or is not reasonable cause for believing that discrimination in public accommodations has been or is being committed.

~~((B-))~~ H. If a finding is made that there is no reasonable cause, (~~((said))~~) the finding shall be served on the charging party and respondent. Within thirty (~~((30))~~) days after service of such a negative finding, the charging party (~~((shall have the right to))~~) may file a written request with the (~~((director))~~) office of civil rights asking for reconsideration of the finding. The office of civil rights shall furnish the charging party with information regarding how to request reconsideration. The (~~((director))~~) office of civil rights shall respond in writing within a reasonable time by granting or denying the request.

SECTION 70. Ordinance 8625, Section 6, and K.C.C. 12.22.060 are each hereby amended to read as

The office of civil rights shall then enter ~~((A))~~ an order ~~((shall then be entered by the director))~~ setting forth the ~~((terms of the))~~ agreement ~~((s))~~ and furnish ~~((C))~~ copies of ~~((such))~~ the order ~~((shall be delivered))~~ to all affected parties ~~((and the original thereof filed with the division of records and elections))~~. Each postfinding settlement agreement is a public record. Failure to comply with the postfinding settlement agreement may be enforced under K.C.C. 12.22.080.

B.1. If ~~((no))~~ the parties cannot reach agreement ~~((can be reached))~~, ~~((a finding to that effect shall be made by the director and incorporated))~~ the office of civil rights shall make a finding to that effect, incorporate
