AN ORDINANCE enhancing the trust and fairness for King County immigrant communities; establishing requirements for how agencies, offices and employees will provide services to immigrants; establishing requirements for the department of adult and juvenile detention honoring of federal administrative detainees, granting access to inmates and sharing information; establishing translation assistance requirements for non-English speaking persons; providing a complaint process; establishing an immigrants and refugees fund; amending Ordinance 16692, Section 2, and K.C.C. 2.15.010 and Ordinance 17706, Section 2, as amended, and K.C.C. 2.15.020, adding new sections to K.C.C. chapter 2.15 and adding a new section to K.C.C. chapter 4A.200.

PREAMBLE:

It is hereby affirmed that Martin Luther King, Jr., County upholds justice and equity for all residents.

The Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King, Jr., County, named in honor of the Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King, Jr., is a "home rule" government under Article XI, Section 4, of the Washington State Constitution. Under its home rule power, the Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King, Jr., County may exercise any power and perform any function, unless preempted by state or federal law, relating to its government and affairs, including the power to regulate for the protection and rights of its inhabitants. To this end, the Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King, Jr., County is dedicated to providing all of its residents fair and equal access to services, opportunities and protection.

Ensuring that all of the Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King, Jr., County's residents have access to necessary services and benefits is essential for upholding the county's commitment to fair and equal access for all residents.

The enforcement of civil immigration laws has historically been a federal government responsibility through the Immigration and Naturalization Service. Since 2002, matters of immigration law have been handled by the Immigration and Customs Enforcement, a branch of the Department of Homeland Security. The federal courts have determined that the enforcement of civil immigration laws are a federal responsibility.

King County seeks to protect the federal and state constitutional rights of all persons in Washington, including immigrants, by clearly articulating its policies and practices.

A goal of this ordinance is to foster trust and cooperation between law enforcement officials and immigrant communities to heighten crime prevention and public safety.

Since 1992, the Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King, Jr., County sheriff's office, has embraced this goal and outlined supporting policies in its operations manual, with which this ordinance is consistent.

In 2014, the county enacted Ordinance 17886, which ensured that the department of adult and juvenile detention would honor administrative detainers from the federal government only when certain conditions were met. Based on federal court decisions that determined that holding persons in custody based solely on a detainer is unconstitutional, the county limited the honoring of immigration detainers to only those accompanied by a judicial warrant.

Another goal of this ordinance is to promote the public health of the Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King, Jr., County residents.

On April 22, 2008, the Reverend Doctor Martin Luther King, Jr., County superior court affirmed the principle that our courts must remain open and accessible for all persons and families to resolve disputes on the merits by adopting a policy that warrants for the arrest of persons based on their immigration status shall not be executed within any of the superior court courtrooms unless directly ordered by the presiding judicial officer and shall be discouraged in the superior court courthouses, unless the public's safety is at immediate risk.

This ordinance is intended to be consistent with federal laws regarding communications between local jurisdictions and federal immigration authorities, including but not limited to United States Code Title 8, Section 1373.
