STATEMENT OF FACTS: The changes to the definition of "sexual orientation" and the addition of the definition of "gender identity or expression" included in this ordinance reflects the current understanding of the communities that identify with its definitions. The changes are also a reflection of the evolving nature of language, and the diversity of our communities. However, the council recognizes that language is not fixed, and terminology evolves as society evolves. The council strives to be inclusive and mindful of the complexity and richness of identities within King County's diverse communities and the council desires to ensure that the language used in the King County Code accurately reflects the communities that are served by the laws of the county. With that commitment, the council recognizes that the definition for "sexual orientation" and "gender identity or expression" will change in the near future and the council is committed to accommodating such changes.
